

Name _____

Date _____

Session 9 Assessment

A. Circle the letter of the choice that best completes each sentence.

- Missionaries respond to the call to serve by spreading the Good News to people in
 - their local churches.
 - foreign lands.
 - the Roman Empire.
 - their families.
- The type of prayer that involves our thoughts, imagination, and emotions in conversation with God is known as
 - universal prayer.
 - missionary prayer.
 - communal prayer.
 - personal prayer.
- Patrick converted thousands of people to Christianity and built churches, convents, and monasteries in
 - Ireland.
 - France.
 - Germany.
 - England.
- Others may be inspired to live a life of faith if we
 - give witness through our example.
 - encourage them to convert to Catholicism.
 - study the message of Pope Benedict XVI.
 - pray quietly alone in our room.
- The work of missionaries in traditionally Christian areas with people who may already know about Jesus and the Gospel is known as the
 - New Evangelization.
 - Proclamation.
 - Sharing of Salvation.
 - Church's work.
- We speak to God and listen for a response as we reflect on images in the form of prayer known as
 - singing.
 - meditation.
 - attending Mass.
 - reading Psalms.
- By working with those from other religious traditions, we can
 - emphasize our differences in beliefs.
 - point out how we pray differently.
 - work toward a common cause that makes the world a better place.
 - try not to let them see our faith in action.
- Columban spoke out against immorality and constructed a monastery in
 - Ireland.
 - France.
 - Germany.
 - England.

Name _____ Date _____

Session 9 Assessment

B. Describe the challenges missionaries faced when they tried to spread the Good News during the Dark Ages. What did the missionaries accomplish?

C. Through Confirmation, we are called to spread the Gospel by living as missionaries in our own lives. What steps can you take to accomplish this?
