

Name _____

Date _____

Session 13 Assessment

A. Circle the letter of the choice that best completes each statement.

- Pope Innocent III was responsible for all of the following except
 - launching two crusades.
 - recognizing that the Church needed to care more for the poor.
 - approving new religious orders, including one founded by Saint Francis of Assisi.
 - building a new main residence for the pope in Rome.
- During the Council of Lateran IV, Church leaders approved decrees and helped define Church teaching, also called
 - philosophy.
 - dogma.
 - religious orders.
 - papacy.
- With his disciples, on the night before he died, Jesus celebrated
 - Reconciliation.
 - the Holy Spirit.
 - the Last Supper.
 - his relationship with God.
- The Second Vatican Council changed all of the following except
 - allowing Mass to be prayed in a language other than Latin.
 - allowing lay people to administer Reconciliation.
 - allowing the priest to face the people while celebrating Mass.
 - allowing people to receive both forms—consecrated Bread and Wine—of Holy Communion.
- Through the Eucharist, we remember Christ's Passion, Death, and
 - Resurrection.
 - teachings.
 - Gospels.
 - sacrifice.
- The leaders at the Council of Lateran IV approved a decree requiring the faithful to receive Holy Communion
 - at least once a week.
 - at least once a year.
 - at least twice a year.
 - on Holy Days.
- Before receiving Holy Communion, anyone who has committed a mortal sin is to receive
 - a blessing from the priest.
 - absolution through the Sacrament of Reconciliation.
 - absolution through the Sacrament of the Eucharist.
 - a gift from the Holy Spirit.
- The positive requirements that the pastoral authority of the Church has determined are necessary to provide an effort in prayer and to live a moral life are called the
 - Precepts of the Church.
 - Morals of the Church.
 - Gifts of the Holy Spirit.
 - Religious Decrees.

Name _____ Date _____

Session 13 Assessment

B. What do we remember during the Eucharist? What do we celebrate?

C. Through Confirmation, the Gifts of the Holy Spirit call us to be patient with our brothers and sisters, obedient to our parents, and respectful of ourselves and others. How have you shown these gifts in your daily life?
